Persuasive writing - signing a new player

It is approaching transfer deadline day and you are in charge of recruiting a new player for Norwich City. You have one opportunity to write a letter to a player you want to sign, called José Martínez, who currently plays for a top team in Spain.

Your letter needs to persuade José to sign for Norwich City, even though three other clubs including Barcelona and Real Madrid are trying to sign him. Make sure José is aware of all of the things that you feel are great about Norfolk and about living here.

Here are a list of 'persuasive' words and phrases that may help you in making sure José Martínez signs for Norwich City.
